FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stacey L. Meisel Included in Super Lawyers® “Top 50 Women Lawyers in New Jersey” List

Livingston, N.J., March 22, 2011 – Becker Meisel’s co-founding member and Bankruptcy, Insolvency, and Creditors’ Rights Group co-chair, Stacey L. Meisel, is included on the list of Super Lawyers’ “Top 50 Women Lawyers in New Jersey.” This is the seventh consecutive year Ms. Meisel has been included on the New Jersey Super Lawyers list.

Ms. Meisel represents privately held debtors, Chapter 7 and 11 Trustees, secured and unsecured creditors, equity holders, and other interested parties in bankruptcy and state court proceedings across the United States. In 1997, she became the youngest serving member on the New Jersey Panel of Bankruptcy Trustees appointed by the United States Department of Justice and is the first African-American woman to serve in this position in New Jersey. In recognition of her accomplishments, Ms. Meisel has received a number of awards and honors, including being recognized twice by The New Jersey Law Journal as one of the forty attorneys selected to comprise their top “40 Under 40”, being named NJBIZ’s “New Jersey’s Best 50 Women In Business”, and being included on the peer-reviewed Best Lawyers “Best Lawyers in America” list for the past two years.

Super Lawyers selects attorneys using a multiphase rating process. Peer nominations and evaluations are combined with third-party research. Each candidate is evaluated on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. Selections are made on an annual, state-by-state basis.

The Super Lawyers selection process involves three basic steps: creation of the candidate pool; evaluation of candidates by the research department; and peer evaluation by practice area.
